

HELLO ALKRINGTON GARDEN VILLAGE

A very warm welcome to the Roebuck. This nostalgic pub sits as a beacon of the local community that is Alkrington Garden Village.

A historic pub worthy of the proud area it sits in, The Roebuck has been re-imagined with a major refurbishment and name change, returning it to its former glory and preceding title of the 1960s, which created its legacy and shaped countless memories for the local people. Whilst the name may have been restored to a former time, the look of this pub has been carefully developed with a modern twist; with an expanded outdoor terrace and prominent island bar, it looks unrecognisable to its previous life.

Owned by the 176-year-old Joseph Holt brewery in Manchester, you can be sure the beers on offer here are second-to-none. From our award-winning Crystal and Diamond Lagers to our Trailblazer Stout (also award winning) and iconic Bitter, there is a beer to suit all tastes and all ages. For us, brewing excellent beer surpasses all else.

Our food is no different. The Roebuck's menu reflects the historic turned modern nature of our surroundings. You'll find a range of small plates, mains with a Joseph Holt twist and desserts that cater for different dietary desires, including vegetarians and vegans. Being an independent, family-owned brewery, now in its sixth generation (yes sixth), we've complimented several unique dishes with some of our most famous ales.

The Roebuck's presence in the heart of this community is undoubted; a place where locals, families, travellers, couples, friends, first-time visitors and even the dog are welcomed with open arms and a friendly embrace.

We're proud of this pub, proud of its history and proud to welcome you in today. We hope you enjoy everything The Roebuck in Alkrington Garden Village, Middleton has to offer.
